(c) by when it is likely to be introduced;

(d) whether Government also propose to extend this scheme to other sections of the population including senior citizens; and

(e) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI A. RAJA): (a) to (e) Yes, Sir. The National Population Policy, 2000 envisages the formulation of Family Welfare Linked Health Insurance Plan a motivational measure, for wider adoption of the small family norm, by couples below the proverty line.

The Institute of Health Systems, Hyderabad, is in the process of designing a Family Welfare Linked Health Insurance Scheme. The same will be examined for adoption after having widespread consultation with related Govt. and Non-Govt. agencies. There is no proposal to extend the scheme to other sections of the population, including senior citizens.
